

You Don't Know Everything

A strategy to create agile organisations through emergence

Gonzalo Bulnes Guilpain

Agiles2013

October 10–11–12, 2013

Let the organization be robust

- Agility

- Living Organisms

- Agile Teams Modelization

- Essential and Secondary Relations

Use emergence

- Emergence basics

- Let's get practical

- Emergence can't be provoked

Accept your limits (we accept ours)

- Communication limits

- We can't do everything

- That's why we set rules

Let the organization be robust
